

The Raising of America, by the producers of Unnatural Causes: Is Inequality Making Us Sick?, is a 5-part documentary series and public engagement campaign that explores how a strong start for all our kids can lead to a healthier, safer, better educated and more prosperous and equitable America.

THE DOCUMENTARY SERIES

Episode 1: *The Raising of America Signature Hour 60 minutes

The U.S. is a can-do nation. So why is child well-being in the U.S. so much worse than in other rich countries? How do the growing stressors on many young families and caregivers—the squeeze for time, money and resources—‘drip down’ on their infants and young children, literally altering the wiring of their developing brains with potential lifelong consequences for their socio-emotional and intellectual development and physical health? How might we do better?

This hour-long episode interweaves the latest discoveries from neuroscience with the stories of families and communities doing all they can to provide the nurturing environments all babies and young children need to thrive. But too often individual efforts are hindered by social conditions that affect children’s developmental trajectories. If we aspire to a healthier, safer, better educated, more prosperous and equitable nation, we must invest in all our infants and their families now. They won’t fail us, but we can’t fail them.

Supporting Episodes

Episode 2: *ONCE UPON A TIME
When Childcare for All
Wasn’t Just a Fairy Tale
(32 min)

Imagine how things might be different if for the past four decades all children in the U.S. had access to high-quality early care and ed. It almost happened. Back in 1971, Congress passed a bill providing high-quality, universal childcare, home visiting and other services from birth to age five to every family that wanted it. Pres. Nixon’s 11th hour veto marked the first time ‘family values’ was invoked to undermine pro-family and child initiatives. The veto marked a critical inflection point from our path towards a more inclusive nation to today’s ‘you’re-on-your-own’ society.

Episode 3: *ARE WE CRAZY ABOUT
OUR KIDS?
(32 min)

Investing in high-quality early care and education pays for itself in many ways and many times over. This episode brings to life the classic economic studies of Perry Preschool and other initiatives conducted by Nobel laureate James Heckman, former Federal Reserve economist Arthur Rolnick and others which illustrate how we can either invest early for success or pay more for failure later. So, what is holding us back?

Episode 4: *WOUNDED PLACES
Confronting Childhood PTSD in
America’s Shell-Shocked Cities
(42 min)

Too many of our children, especially children of color in neighborhoods of concentrated poverty, experience adversity, violence, neglect and other forms of trauma and show symptoms similar to PTSD—except there is no ‘post.’ Traveling to Philadelphia and Oakland, this episode chronicles the stories of children shook by violence and adversity and asks not “What’s wrong with you?” but “What happened to you?” and how can traumatized children and neighborhoods heal.

Episode 5: *DNA IS NOT DESTINY
How the Outside Gets Under the Skin
(37 min)

New scientific discoveries reveal how fetal and early childhood environments—chemical, family, socioeconomic—literally become part of us. They alter not the genes babies inherit but the epigenetic “volume controls” which turn genes on and off. These epigenetic switches can influence the self-regulation of emotions and behaviors, cognitive function, even the susceptibility to chronic diseases as people age.
